

New in 2019 Written Reading.

I will give you an insight to the path of your life, on your life's journey.

I will look at who you are and describe which turning points and adventures your life has brought.

"Insight brings change" that is an important part of life which gives you the steering wheel of your own life.

Sometimes I will crack a hard nut to show you that you will fall & rebound. The best part of a written reading is that the words have an energy load and you can read them over and over again. I will write clearly without any fuss.

A written reading contains approximately 1000 words and costs € 77,-

You can send your request to nickysplace@gmail.com.

I will start working for you after I have received the payment at my bank.

Banknumber NL49INGB0009142067 at name of: nickysplace.

Delivery mostly within 5 working days.

What do I need from you?

Your full names, date and place of birth.

Your current address where you live, and the surname of your partner (if in a current relationship).

For written readings I will follow the same rules as for readings face to face:

I work for the Spiritworld, the Spiritworld will only give me the information that I am allowed to say to you! Sometimes you want to know something about a person in your family or friends who are alive, if the person in question does not know that you are seeking answers, or you have no permission from said persons these questions will remain with me until permission is given.
